THE TEN O'CLOCK EVENTS FOR THE WEEK

WORSHIP SERVICES

Tuesday

Reverend Tom Erickson, our Pastor-in-Residence, will again be our preacher. His sermons have been of great help to our community and the service will be meaningful to you.

Wednesday

Dr. David Allan Hubbard will continue his series on "Discovering the Will of God." The Library and all offices will be closed during chapel.

Thursday

Ascension Day. Christians around the world celebrate this day in remembrance of the glorious ascension of Jesus Christ after his resurrection. Our special celebration will have many unusual items including a brass quartet. We will conclude the service outdoors. Reverend Tom Erickson will be bringing a brief message as part of our observance.

CONVOCATION

Friday

Theology/Missions Convocation. Room 301, Payton Hall. "Overcoming Language and Culture Barriers." Tom and Betty Sue Brewster, authors of Language Acquisition Made Practical (LAMP), and teachers of the Language and Culture Learning class at Fuller, will lead us in both experiencing and understanding their practical approach to language and culture learning ("The Learning Cycle") as a solution to this significant barrier to church growth and planting. Jerry Hogshead, Intern Committee, Mark Nikkel, SWM

MONDAY PRAYER AND FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

Episcopal Fellowship - Child Development Clinic, Group Room 2nd Floor.

American Baptist Students - Dr. Larson's Office, Slessor Hall, Room 105.

Lutheran Fellowship - Payton Hall, Room 301.

Missions Prayer Group - Payton Hall, Room 302.

Charismatic Fellowship - Library, Second Floor, Room 205.

Human Concerns Prayer and Discussion - Student Center, V. Pres. Office, Second Floor.

Presbyterian Fellowship - Payton Hall, Room 303.

The Spiritual Life Committee urges the entire Fuller community to carefully read the summary guide lines voted by Joint Faculty and the request to establish the office of Director of Christian Community when adequately funded. During the Day of Prayer last Wednesday 500 reminder cards for daily prayer were distributed. Additional copies of the Joint Faculty action and prayer reminder cards are available in the Mailroom. If we join together in purpose and prayer as one body in Christ a deepening of spiritual life at Fuller Theological Seminary will already have begun.

THE FAMILY -- SURVIVING IN THE MINISTRY

Husbands, wives, children: What are the issues of being a family in ministry? What are the stresses unique to the minister's family? What does it mean to be a "P.K."? This course is designed to deal with these questions. Open to women, men, couples, or singles, the class will be taught by Arch and Kathy Hart. The place is the Refectory, at 7:00 p.m. for the four evenings from Tuesday, May 2 through Tuesday, May 23. Cost is $10 per person, payable the first evening. For questions, call Patsy Robeck, 793-7978.

WOMEN STUDENTS: Our next "Brown Bagger" will be at noon on Wednesday, May 3, in the Missions Reading Room with Rev. Alice Collins. Reverend Collins is the pastor who was hired by the San Gabriel Presbytery for a 3-year Pastor-at-Large position. Her work includes pulpit supply and guest preaching, interim pastor for churches who are in the pastor-seeking process, and some administrative work. She comes from a background of 14 years in the ministry. Come and have lunch, bring your questions, and bring a friend!

PLEASE WELCOME...the Doctor of Ministry students listed on the back pages of this week's Semi. These Christian leaders are here for "The Minister's Mental Health" taught by Dr. Arch Hart. They will be here from May 1-12. If you wish to contact a specific individual you may do so through the Continuing Education Office in the back of Slessor Hall or call Ext. 190.

YOU CAN STILL GIVE FULLER'S STUDENT TRAVEL SERVICE THE BUSINESS even if your parents, friends, siblings, sundry associates want to make their reservations themselves and want to pick up their ticket at their home airport. We get a commission, your friends get their tickets, you get the satisfaction of knowing you benefited the student body. What could be better? Come see us. Room 201 above the Catalust. Monday and Friday 9-12, Tuesday 10-11, Wednesday 1-4, Thursday 10-1.

No one can say that Fuller's Student Travel Service doesn't ferret out the best travel deals around. Cunard Cruises International has come up with the ultimate in SuperSavers: an eighty (80) day around-the-world cruise (New York, Casablanca, Cape Town, Singapore, Hong Kong, you get the idea) including all meals for only...$45,000. That's right, three zeros. You can't shake a stick at that bargain, and we'll even accept Master Charge. In addition, anyone booking passage during the next week will receive free a travel poster from us. You might just like to go as a calculated gamble that you can meet and marry someone rich. Come see us; Room 201, above the Catalyst.

FROM THE BOOK EXCHANGE: Thanks for a successful sale! However, several buyers have taken books, left notes, and not yet paid for these books. Please, for the sake of the owners, finalize these accounts. For example, 10 copies of Sidler's Rich Christians, Kummel's Historical Investigation of the NT, and Bultmann's NT Theology (2 Vol.). Thank you for cooperating. John Wipf, #203.

This week we will concentrate on prayer for General Assembly and students' concerns, and we will have a time of fellowship. Refreshments will be served. Come join us!

REMEMBER -- MONDAY, MAY 29, IS A SEMINARY HOLIDAY FOR ALL!

DR. SAMUEL SOUTHARD, a national authority in the area of Pastoral Care and Pastoral Theology, will be addressing the convocation on Friday, May 12, at 10:00 a.m. Dr. Southard has been the Professor of Pastoral Care in the Texas Medical Center in Houston, a Professor of Psychology of Religion at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the Director of Research for the General Council of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States, the Director of Professional Services in Teaching of the Georgia Mental Health Institute, the Chairman of the Lilly Endowment Conference on Motivation for Ministry, and is a well known lecturer in the area of Family Counseling. Among his publications are: Religion and Nursing, Pastoral Evangelism, Counseling in East Asia, Your Guide to Group Experience, Ethics for Executives, Comprehensive Pastoral Care, Religious Inquiry.

Much more could be said concerning the work of Dr. Southard. Of most importance to the Seminary family at this point is the fact that Dr. Southard will be teaching a course on Pastoral Theology in our Summer School from August 7 to August 18, and will also be engaged in the Seminary's D.Min. program during that same time period. The theme of Dr. Southard's convocation address will be "Theological Assumptions for Pastoral Ministry" which will be a preview of his summer school course.

THE ADVISORS ARE LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD PERSONS. Long hours of exacting work demanding thorough involvement and exhausting concentration. Challenging employment that will hone your skills to precision. Minimal salary and personal recognition, but high dividends in satisfaction. Are you person enough to qualify? Enlist now in the advising office (Bldg. 120).

DO YOU LIKE SURPRISES? There are good ones -- and bad ones. To avoid the latter, and if you are a graduating senior, be sure to check your total credits on your last grade report. You will need 144 credit units for the M.Div. and 96 for the M.A. by June. If you have already received a bad surprise or have any questions, see your advisor immediately.

FROM THE REGISTRAR...Because we are interested in keeping your records in the best possible way, we are asking that all students be aware of the fact that we find it necessary to adhere strictly to the procedure as indicated on page 6 in paragraph 4 at the top of the page when any student wishes to review any items as listed there. We have tried to accommodate students on an "immediate attention" basis, but find we cannot cope with this kind of a schedule so we ask your congenial compliance with the process as it is stated in the Student Handbook. Thank you so much. The Registrar

CONSIDER THE ADVISABILITY OF BECOMING CERTIFIED to teach any course in a program of church teacher training recognized throughout the world by evangelical Christians. This certification involves qualifying for the Standard Teachers Diploma of the Evangelical Teacher Training Association.

Any Fuller student is eligible who has completed (during both seminary and undergraduate studies) 10 semester hours of Bible and 14 semester hours of Christian Education, Missions, Evangelism, Principles and Methods of Teaching, Human Development, Church Educational Program, and Practicum. One must also give assent to the Association's doctrinal statement. The diploma indicates that the holder is sufficiently proficient to qualify as an instructor of local church teachers in their special leadership training program. The value of this program lies in its organized approach covering basic biblical knowledge for church teachers.

Certification procedure is to complete a special registration card and pay a basic fee of $4.00. Further information and registration cards are available from Professor Clifford Larson. See his bulletin board.

RESULTS OF SURVEY ON DESIRED COURSES: I would first of all like to thank all who returned the survey responses and the many who offered words of encouragement and showed their interest in this endeavor. I have been directed to particular faculty members to discuss the possibility of these courses and a decision will be worked out with the Academic Affairs Committee. Again, thank you for your responses. If anyone else would like to make their interests known send a note to my box, John Gangi, #1196.

Annual Church Growth Lectures

Bishop Stephen Neill

The annual Church Growth Lectures will be given this year by Dr. Stephen Neill. Three lectures are scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on May 9, 10 and 11 to be held in the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, East Colorado Boulevard, adjacent to the campus.

Dr. Neill is an Irish Anglican. He was trained at Trinity College, Cambridge, served 20 years as a missionary in South India (he still dreams in Tamil!), was elected Bishop of Tinnevely (by an electoral body 96% Indian!), and has lectured in theology as Chaplain of Trinity College (4 years!) and has served as Associate General Secretary of the World Council of Churches (for more than a decade). More recently his posts include Visiting Professor of Missions and Ecumenical Theology at the University of Hamburg (in German, of course!) and of Religions in the University of Kenya (in English!) and at Yale Divinity School (in American!) and currently at Oxford University. He has written a score of books on a wide range of missiologically related subjects. Alas, his tribe is diminishing!

To All Members of the Fuller Community:

On behalf of Student Council, I would like to invite you to the First Annual Fuller Spring Renaissance Faire, to be held on the mall on Saturday, May 13. This gala event will incorporate arts and crafts booths, athletic tournaments, talented musicians, madrigal singers, Renaissance dancers, excellent food, and a choice opportunity to spend some quality time with your family, friends, and other members of the Fuller Community. The many booths will be displaying and selling, hanging lamps, photographic art, contemporary paintings, clothes, hand-sown items, homemade breads and pastries, pottery, stained glass, weaving, stuffed animals, new and used books, plants, and many other unique items.

The Catalyst will be serving quality gourmet sandwiches, organic juices, coffees, teas, and desserts, and will also be offering a special menu of Renaissance food items. Athletic events will include a doubles volleyball tournament and a singles badminton tournament (in the morning) and a frisbee marksmanship tournament and skateboard race (in the afternoon). $5.00 gift certificates to the Catalyst will be awarded to the winners in each of these events.

Afternoon entertainment will feature many talented musicians and vocalists, madrigal singers and Renaissance dances performed by members of the Lamb's Players. The afternoon will culminate with a Country Music Jamboree at 4:30 P.M., with all the musicians joining together. Following this, the Faire will be highlighted by a performance at 6:30 P.M. by the Lamb's Players Street Theater of the medieval comedy "The Hound of Everyman". Those at Fuller who have seen this play testify to its excellent quality and rousing humor. It is certainly a play that your family and friends would enjoy.

We anticipate a wonderful time together and the Faire will be all the better if you are there.

Sincerely,

Larry
